

Paul Dreger

Services for Paul A Dreger, a longtime resident of the Norfolk and Meadow Grove area who has been residing at 6528 Brandywine Way, Las Vegas, Nevada 89107, are to be Tuesday at 10 a.m. They will be held at Red Rock Palm Mortuary, 1600 S Jones, Las Vegas 89107.

Dreger

The Rev. Terry Brandenburg of Mt. View Lutheran Church, Las Vegas, will officiate.

Mr. Dreger died Thursday, March 18, 1993, at a hospital following an illness. Burial will be in Palm Mortuary Mausoleum on Main Street.

Mr. Dreger was born to Albert and Matilda (Voek) Dreyer on June 11, 1911, at Norfolk as the 11th of a family of 12 children. He attended Christ Lutheran School in Norfolk through the eighth grade. He was confirmed at Christ Lutheran Church.

He married Esther Wittnebel on Feb. 4, 1934. They settled on a farm one-half mile north of Meadow Grove and farmed and lived there for 55 years. He also worked for 30 years as a finish carpenter and cabinet maker, associated with contractor Loren Hetrick of Norfolk.

He retired and moved to Norfolk in 1989 and two years later he and his wife moved to Las Vegas to be near their daughters in Las Vegas and California.

He and his wife were members of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church in Meadow Grove for 55 years. They were also active in the Meadow Grove Senior Citizens Club. They attended Mt. View Lutheran Church in Las Vegas.

Mr. Dreger is survived by his wife, Esther, of Las Vegas, two daughters and their husbands, Janice and Kenneth Clemens of Las Vegas and Barbara and Ron Lewis of Mill Valley, Calif., six grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren, and one sister, Mattie Weiher of Branson, Mo.

He was preceded in death by his parents, three brothers, seven sisters and one grandchild.
